	Motion 52	Chris Reeves Oodgeroo SEC		M.9	Yes
	Motion 53	Craig Ray	K.13; M.4; M.7	Invalidly submitted No Party Unit listed Breach of J.7 NO - in a volunteer organisation, non-attendance at a Disputes Committee hearing within 28 days should not be treated as default or guilt when members may have work, distance, illness, caring responsibilities or family commitments, and procedural fairness requires reasonable conciliation and alternative arrangements before any adverse decision is made.
	Motion 54	Craig Ray	M.4	Invalidly submitted No Party Unit listed Breach of J.7 Neutral
	Motion 55	Craig Ray	M.10	Invalidly submitted No Party Unit listed Breach of J.7 NO
	Motion 56	Craig Ray	M.7	Invalidly submitted No Party Unit listed Breach of J.7 Neutral
	Motion 57	Craig Ray	M.11	Invalidly submitted No Party Unit listed Breach of J.7 NO - A motion seemingly to justify an earlier flawed disciplinary / expulsion process. This motion is dangerously vague and ripe for weaponisation: undefined terms like "publishing" and "direct need" allow ordinary member emails, scrutiny of minutes and legitimate internal political communication to be recast as misconduct, silencing members under the guise of confidentiality.
	Motion 58	Geoff Harrison/David Goodwin Bonner FDC, Bulimba SEC, Lytton SEC	RBA #33 p.61	M.11	Yes – Correlates with Motion 59 = RBA #10 p.22
PART 6 - MEMBERSHIP
TOPIC A:	Motion 59	Geoff Harrison/David Goodwin Bonner FDC, Bulimba SEC, Lytton SEC	RBA #10 p.22	D.23	Yes

	Motion 69	Craig Ray	RBA #10 p.22; RBA #49 p.89	D.23; D.24; D.25; U.13	Invalidly submitted No Party Unit listed Breach of J.7 NO – A motion to retrospectively legitimise a flawed expulsion. These motions are gag clauses that contradict the duties of Party Unit Chairs to raise issues, conduct business and protect members' interests. They are drafted so broadly that legitimate complaints, scrutiny, member-to-member discussion and risk reporting could all be treated as misconduct - a clear attempt to silence criticism, suppress transparency and retrospectively justify wrongful disciplinary action against members who did nothing wrong.
	Motion 70	Geoff Harrison/David Goodwin Bonner FDC, Bulimba SEC, Lytton SEC		RBA #11 p.23	D.29	Yes - ensures lapsed memberships (including MPs and BCC Cr's) are handled transparently, not backdated or retrospectively regularised.
